

PAYMENT TO CHX SHAREHOLDERS FOLLOWING ICE ACQUISITION OF CHX

In connection with the acquisition of CHX Holdings, Inc. (CHX Holdings), the parent company of the Chicago Stock Exchange, by Intercontinental Exchange (ICE) on July 18, 2018, the shareholders of CHX Holdings are now entitled to receive their respective portion of the aggregate consideration paid by ICE in connection with the acquisition. The shareholders of CHX Holdings should have received, or will soon be receiving, a Letter of Transmittal from the paying agent, Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company. In addition to providing instructions for surrendering your shares, the Letter of Transmittal should also be duly completed, signed and returned to the paying agent by each CHX Holdings shareholder in order to receive their respective consideration. If you, as a CHX Holdings shareholder, have any questions regarding your payment or the payment process, the paying agent may be contacted at:
